New commander for the Hinckley and Blaby NPA

A new inspector is overseeing the Hinckley and Blaby Neighbourhood Policing Area (NPA). Steve Palmer has replaced Inspector Jamie Osborne in overseeing the patch which stretches from Glenfield to Hinckley – including Narborough, Stoney Stanton and Market Bosworth.

Insp Palmer – a former deputy NPA commander for East Leicester – took the reins last week. Insp Osborne, who became NPA commander in August 2020, is moving to a new role in local policing and partnerships.

Insp Palmer joined the Army at 16 years old, serving 14 years with the Royal Engineers before becoming a police officer in 2007, starting his career working in Blaby District.

He said: “I am delighted to be the Area Commander for Hinckley and Blaby, the area where I started my policing career 15 years ago.

“I look forward to using all my experience to build a strong policing team that works together with partners and our communities to make our area safer, putting the public first in all that we do.”

CRIME UPDATES - #YouSaidWeDid -Please find below updates from your local beat team in relation to the priorities you have raised via Neighbourhood Link:

You Said – Anti-Social Behaviour

We Did – Those responsible for causing vandalism on Ellis Park from last month’s newsletter have been identified and are being dealt with appropriately. As schools finish for the summer this week we would encourage you to have a safe summer out and about. If any residents have issues over the summer period please report it to us as it is happening as you will get the most appropriate response.

You Said – Vehicle Crime

We Did – Last month we saw a small number of cars stolen with 2 being recovered fairly swiftly. If your car is keyless we encourage you to keep your keys in a faraday bag as these will prevent the signal being intercepted.

You Said – Residential Burglary

We Did – Last month was pretty successful for. There have been a number of arrests on relation to burglaries across the beat. Including one person that had been caught at the scene. All investigations continue and the beat team are still out conducting pro-active patrols into the early hours.

You Said – Road Safety

We Did – We have been continued this month with speed checks across the beat assisted by our police volunteers across the beat in locations highlighted to us via Neighbourhood Link and also from the parish councils. To have your say on Road Safety keep an eye out for surveys that are sent out via Neighbourhood Link.
