In your community...

The beat team were in the beat bus on Forest House Lane, LFE and Glenfield Lane, Kirby Muxloe in September for local residents to come and meet a member of their beat and speak about any local issues. You can find us in October too:

- 06/10/18, 1100-1300, The Library, LFE

The Kirby Muxloe Funday was the highlight of September. PCSO Wright was joined by neighbouring beat team officers to assist with the day's enjoyment. The Kirby Muxloe senior citizens tote group, which offers local senior citizens regular activities near and far, received £1000 from the community event as well as providing a lovely day out for all the local residents that attended. Search 'Kirby Muxloe Community Funday' on Facebook ready for next years event!

PC Payne also attended the McMillan Cancer Research morning Held in Kirby Muxloe.

Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB)...

During August we received a couple of reports of the grass area on Wheatfield Close/Sword Close being used by young adults to ride their motor vehicles on as well as using the alleyway through to Cranstone Crescent. Registration numbers have been provided to police and the riders will be spoken to and issued with Sec 59 notices. Should they continue with any anti-social behaviour they will be liable to have their vehicles seized. A further two individuals were issued Sec 59 warnings after being reported by Glenfield Parish Council for riding their vehicles on Ellis Park.

Crime Prevention...

With the weather changing different methods of stealing cars open up to opportunist criminals. Be sure not to be caught out! If you are defrosting your car in the morning, stay with it because you never know who is around and it only takes a moments distraction to become a victim of this type of crime.

In September the beat team were contacted about a rogue trader targeting a vulnerable Glenfield resident. The person contacting us challenged the rogue traders who left the location quickly upon discovery. Having spoken about this in a previous Newsletter it is great that the elderly gentleman was not duped and we were informed so that we could take necessary action.
